

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Indiana's Telephone Privacy Laws have helped our family find relief from daily phone interruptions and harrasment from unwelcome solicitations. We used to receive at least 6-12 phone calls per week. The law has helped reduce that figure significantly; 1-2-no calls per week!